SCHOOLS OPEN SEPT. 12

Superintendent Willis Announces Date for Three Institutions.

MRS. LEWIS IS PRINCIPAL

Winchester Lady Succeeds Miss Rose Dexter as Head of George Wythe on Hampton Roads—Others Are Elected—No District Dates.

County Superintendent of Schools John M. Willis yesterday officially announced that the schools of Hampton, Phoebus and at George Wythe will open for the session of 1910-1911 on Monday, September 12. This means that the children of the three places will have to return to their books one week from next Monday.

Mr. Willis said that the county board will meet in a few days now to complete the arrangements for opening the schools and also to elect the teachers for the West End Academy, which is the high school of the county. Most of the teachers have been secured by Mr. Willis and the board will simply have to ratify his selection. Prof. George W. Guy will again be chosen the principal, but there will be several changes in the special departments of the high schools.

George Wythe Teachers.

Mrs. Virginia Lewis, of Winchester, was elected the principal of the George Wythe school, on the Boulevard, by the Wythe district board, which met yesterday for the purpose of selecting the teachers for the coming session. Miss Rose Dexter, who had been the principal since the opening of the new building, and who is popular with the patrons, declined re-election much to the regret of the board. Miss Nettie Montgomery, a teacher, also declined re-election as she will teach in Fredericksburg. The board elected as assistants for the coming session Miss Alice Davis, Miss Marion Sizer, Miss Katie Sinclair and Mrs. Mary McCaig. This will give the George Wythe school one of the strongest corps of teachers of any county graded schools in the state. The date for opening the district schools in the county has not been definitely settled upon.

MAGISTRATE KENNY FINES J. T. ARRINGTON GUILTY

Negro Special Officer at Bay Shore is Convicted of Engaging in Game of Poker and Fined $5.

After hearing several witnesses yesterday afternoon, Magistrate Martin Kenny decided that Special Officer J. T. Arrington, arrested at Bay Shore for participating in a card game, was guilty of gaming and imposed a fine of $5 and costs upon the negro officer. Arrington disclaimed any intention of gambling, but said that he took part in a game of poker in order to do a little detective work around the negro resort. He admitted that he purchased the chips in the penny-anti contest and Magistrate Kenny held that a special officer, or for that matter, a regular officer, cannot engage in gambling, even if he is doing so to collect evidence as a detective. Arrington, through his attorney, George W. Fields, noted an appeal to the Circuit Court and the case will likely be heard by Judge Robinson at the October term.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

Miss Gladys Shelton Mears Becomes

Bride of Carrol Milton Cluverius. "Sunset Villa," the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hickman Mears in West End, was the scene of a pretty wedding yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock when Miss Gladys Shelton, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mears, became the bride of Mr. Carrol Milton Cluverius. The beautiful Episcopal ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Reverdy Estill, D. D., rector of St. John's church, in the presence of a party of relatives and intimate friends of the couple.

The parlor was decorated with ferns and golden rod. The bride, attired in a handsome gown of white silk and carrying a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley, entered with her father, who gave her in marriage.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Mears tendered a reception to the bridal party. There was an array of beautiful presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Cluverius left last night for Washington, where they will spend several days. Later they will return to Hampton to visit the bride's parents for a week before leaving for Lexington, Ky., to make their home. Mr. Cluverius, who is a native of Newport News, recently was transferred to Lexington by the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway and made cashier of the company's office there.
